ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Dean, Washington University School of Law 2014-Present

Chief academic, budget, policy, and administrative leader at Washington University School of Law—a #16 ranked law school. Responsible for 1,000 residential and online students, 250 faculty and staff, cross-disciplinary centers, library, and 200,000 square feet of space. The operating budget is roughly $85M, with $250M endowment. Recent successful projects include: $89M capital campaign (159% of the goal), budgetary innovations, and enhanced international and online programming. University service includes: Chancellor Search Committee (member), Social Work School Dean Search (chair), Steering Committee on Diversity & Inclusion (chair), and leading a new university-wide fundraising initiative to advance development work through a heightened focus on the academic mission.

Vice Dean, Academic & Faculty Affairs, University of Southern California School of Law 2013-2014

Responsible for academic and curricular development, working with residential and adjunct faculty. Promoted University-wide, cross-disciplinary research and teaching, worked with donors on legal innovations inside the law school, and led a Task Force to enhance the law school admissions protocols with data and analytics.

Founding Co-Director, Schwarzenegger Institute for State and Global Policy 2012-2014

Worked with Chairman Arnold Schwarzenegger and Co-Director to create and execute vision and mission for the new Institute. Responsibilities included creation of international Board of Advisors, organizing events with high-profile politicians and leaders from across the world, and bridging the academic with the political and policy vision of the Institute.
